

Mistakes Allow Thinking to Happen

Name: _____ Assessment: _____

Due date (1 week from today): _____ Original Grade: _____ New: _____

1. Were you ready for the assessment? Why or why not?
2. What could you do to better prepare for the assessment?
3. What is a suggestion you have for me (Mrs. Winter) that could help you be more prepared? Throw some ideas out here – you never know what will happen!
4. After fixing your mistakes, is there a theme to your mistakes? If so, how will you ready yourself for the next time?

Question #: _____

New work:

Question #: _____

New work:

Write at least two complete sentences explaining your mistake and what you did to fix it.

Write at least two complete sentences explaining your mistake and what you did to fix it.

Question #: _____

New work:

Write at least two complete sentences explaining your mistake and what you did to fix it.

Question #: _____

New work:

Write at least two complete sentences explaining your mistake and what you did to fix it.

Question #: _____

New work:

Write at least two complete sentences explaining your mistake and what you did to fix it.

Question #: _____

New work:

Write at least two complete sentences explaining your mistake and what you did to fix it.